At Family Support Newcastle

We know that caring for children can be difficult at times.

These difficulties can arise due to lack of money, information or resources, relationship problems, mental health problems, isolation, violence, lack of support from family or friends, drug or alcohol problems or the changing and developing needs of children or parents.

We value diversity and our workers are respectful of the needs of different family members and families from different backgrounds.

Family Support Newcastle

- Welcomes people from all backgrounds and lifestyle.
- Is committed to participation.
- Works with people so they learn from each other.
- Works with people to build on what they do well.
- Is child friendly.
- Supports community connections.
- Will listen to complaints and suggestions about the service.
